LATEST EDITION. THE IRISH SCHEME.

Gladstone's Feeler to Learn the Temper of the Country.

Hartington and Goschen Show Signs of Yielding—Irving's Production of "Faust"—Mr. Cowen's Manifesto—Pastor's American Patients Arrive in Paris—Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, December 21.—The news agencies which had no special information of Gladstone's proposals are making strenuous efforts to obtain a specific denial from him by reported telegrams to Hawarden. They have not succeeded, and will not, as my direct information is, yield to the scheme of the Foreign Office. Of course, the opinions of the plan, copied from New York, O'Reilly's is nearest the truth, except on Parnell's absurd proposal of a protective tariff. I have seen letters from Gladstone, and a member of his family, discussing the reports of his plan and correcting nothing, except the conditions of the veto. The reports were deliberately and authoritatively issued through a reliable press, in order to learn the temper of the country on the general question of home rule and certain special details. I am informed, this morning that Gladstone's scheme is already elaborated in great detail, of which those published are only a small part. Some of them, therefore, may be dropped or altered, but the great cardinal fact of Gladstone's adherence to the policy of home rule, and that he has a definite plan for the right occasion, are not doubted now by any well-informed public man in England.

HARTINGTON AND GOSCHEN

had a special interview, resulting in the open letter of the former giving a cautiously worded denial of his own participation in the matter, but Hartington will do as he did about house-hold suffrage, namely: Gracefully yield to the demands of the Whig and Radical, and then divest the country of its Whig and Radical. Many of the rich oppose and support the scheme, but the preponderance is in its favor, and the most extensive opponents will come over when Gladstone produces the scheme in his own name, because they recognize the plain fact that nothing but Gladstone does or can keep the Liberal party together.

IRVING'S FAUST

was a gorgeous spectacle, the Brocken scene probably surpassing anything ever seen on the stage. Ellen Terry was extremely good. Irving is well fitted for his part and played admirably what there was of it, but the chief criticism is mild surprise that he should produce so magnificently a play affording him personally so little scope. It will prove a great popular success.

MR. COWEN'S MANIFESTO.

LONDON, December 21.—Mr. Cowen, a Radical reformer, and a member of Parliament-elect for Newcastle-on-Tyne, has issued a manifesto to his constituents respecting home rule for Ireland. Mr. Cowen was the chief one of the exceptions made by Mr. Parnell in his manifesto instructing Nationalists not to vote for Liberal candidates. Mr. Cowen says: "It is impossible for England to consent to the protective tariffs for Ireland, the confiscation of property of landlords in Ireland or to allow Irish members to legislate in the home affairs of England in addition to having their own parliament. With these exceptions I approve of home rule for Ireland. Proper guarantees for the representations of minorities and the partition of all imperial changes and the unity of the empire, in my opinion, are useless. The best security against a disruption of the union is the mutual interest existing between England and Ireland."

FRANCE.

PASTEUR'S AMERICAN PATIENTS.

PASTEUR, December 21.—The four children, Justin Fitzgerald, Patsey Ryan, Willie Lane and Patsey Reynolds, who were recently bitten by mad dogs in Newark, N. J., and sailed on December 9 in the steamship Canada, to be placed under the care of M. Pasteur, landed at Havre all right and well. They reached this city to-day and have proceeded to M. Pasteur's house, where special arrangements have been made for their treatment.

HENRY EBERT, No. 134 North Sixteenth street, St. Louis, Mo., says: "I called to tell you that I bought of you the host remedy in the world for Croup. My little girl, four years old, had a very bad attack, and we despaired of her life, but two doses of Dr. Wines Lung Balm made her all right. I would not take $100 for the good it done her."

SWIFT PUNISHMENT.

John Lee, a North Carolina Murderer, Lynched by a Mob.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., December 21.—At 2 o'clock last Saturday morning the jail at Rockingham was forcibly entered by fifty men, who secured a white man named John Lee, took him out of town and hanged him to a limb of a tree. Lee murdered Solomon Welsh three weeks ago, for the sum of $100.

Death of Frederick A. Marquard.

Frederick A. Marquard, son of H. G. Marquard, and a nephew of the late Thomas Allen, died yesterday at the Hospital Station, Long Island. The deceased was at the time employed in the office of the Iron Mountain Railroad, and is well-known in the city. He was a white man named John Lee, took him out of town and hanged him to a limb of a tree. Lee murdered Solomon Welsh three weeks ago, for the sum of $100.

The President at Church.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 21.—The President went to church yesterday morning for the first time in several weeks, accompanied by Miss Cleveland. He had lost part of his identity in the absence of the high collar that usually encircles his neck. Dr. Sander, his doctor, says: "He is not well enough to execute the existing laws with the very best of subordinates, and it would be his duty to place his hands in the hands of the President and the Senate, to whom the law had wisely confided the selection of the chief customs.

MISSOURI RIVER IMPROVEMENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 21.—Representative Warner has prepared a bill providing a special appropriation of $300,000 for continuing the improvement of the Missouri and protecting the improvements already made.

Reports from Minister Cox, from his post in Texas, represent him thoroughly pleased with his term of office, with no idea of returning before his term expires.
